Garden Club

Are your house plants getting ready for the Flower Show? Or perhaps you did not know that there is to be a table just for house plants. I do not know yet what the points for judging will be, but color, symmetry and general thriftiness, will be the main ones. So if you have a favorite plant, now is the time to begin to groom, and feed it that it may be at its best in August.

Another thing, please remember that this Flower Show, while sponsored by the Garden Club, is for every man, woman, and child in our community. You do not have to be a member of the Club, to exhibit in any of the departments. The rules of entry will be very simple and will be made public soon. Of course we would like to have you join with us, attend the meetings and give us the benefit of your personal experience also, but if for any reason you cannot, do not think you must stand aside. This is a community project, and we would like to feel that everyone in Northfield will have some part in it.

Please be assured that your cooperation in maintaining this indispensable community asset is greatly appreciated.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

(Unanimously adopted, July 4, 1776, by the "Representatives of the United States of America in General Congress assembled," commonly called the Continental Congress. It was signed by 54 delegates, Aug. 2, 1776; by Thos. McKean, Del., in Oct., and by Matthew Thornton, New Hampshire, in Nov. of that year.)

When in the Course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained, and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained, and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the meantime exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies, without the Consent of our Legislatures.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation: For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us; For protecting them by a mock Trial from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States; For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world; For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent; For depriving us in many cases of the benefits of Trial by Jury; For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences; For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighboring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies; For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments; For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms. Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their Legislature to extend an unwarrantable Jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

WE THEREFORE, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.

Alumni Reunion Very Successful

The Northfield High School Alumni Association held the most successful meeting in its history on Tuesday night at "The Maple."

Gathering at the Hotel at six-thirty over a hundred loyal former students of the school marched to the banquet table to the strains of the School Song. Led by Mary Dale of the class of 1907, the oldest class represented, the other classes fell in line. 1909 with nearly every member present came in costume wearing black glasses and carrying canes. However the age they simulated speedily dropped from their shoulders as the festivities began.

Immediately after the saying of Grace by Edward Morgan, Miss Ruth Anderson welcomed the new members of the Alumni Association who were until a few short days ago members of the Class of 1934 at Northfield High School. Ralph Reed responded for the Class. Other Classes then spoke thru their appointed delegates. Included in this part of the festivities were Dr. Holton, Mary Dale, Aaron Newton, Lyle Amason and Edward Morgan. Mr. Robbins spoke on behalf of the School. Miss Anderson then introduced Lester P. White, of Mt. Hermon who gave the classes assembled an inspiring talk. Mr. White interspersed bits of humor thru his speech and added greatly to the delightfulness of the occasion.

After the speech of the evening, a short business session was held. This was presided over by Lyle Glazier who was introduced to the Alumni as a new member of the teaching staff at the Center School. During this session the following new officers were chosen for the next year.

President, Lewis Wood; Vice President, Mary Breinig; Secretary, John Hurley; Treasurer, Mary Dalton.

A vote of commendation was given to Miss Anderson for the very efficient handling of the affair.

Many of the old Grads then took time to re-visit the scenes of their School Days and made a pilgrimage to the High School to ramble thru the halls and live again those good old days.

The climax of the affair was the dance held in the Town Hall. Prettily decorated with Laurel and Ferns to represent a Garden and featuring the School Colors the Hall was filled to capacity with happy young people and people who were young again "just for tonight."

Bob White and his merry men furnished music for dancing from nine to one.

Johnson-Young

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Louise Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Johnson of East Northfield, to Harold Gage Young, son of Mrs. Della Young of Longmeadow, took place Saturday at 4 p.m. at the bride's home. Rev. William W. Coe, assisted by Rev. Stanley Carne, officiated in the presence of 125 relatives and friends.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, walking down an aisle of laurel, roses and ferns joined with white ribbons. Her gown was of white satin made on simple lines, with long tight sleeves. Her long tulle veil fell from a halo style cap. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Ralph Hamm, the former Betty Young, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor.

Miss Jess Stanley and Miss Eleanor Rodgers of East Northfield were bridesmaids and Virginia Anne Steadler was the flower girl.

The best man was Ralph Hamm of Longmeadow. Donald Young of Longmeadow and Myron Lewis Johnson were the ushers.

She was born in Readsboro, Vt. where she taught school. She came to South Vernon in 1885 and made a host of friends who mourn her passing. The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. Russell the sole survivor.

BACON AND HAIGS

The Bacon and Haigs signs are beginning to make their appearance on Automobiles so the campaign would seem to be under way. The Boston papers are saying many fine things about our neighbor, John Haigs, who is as popular in the Eastern end of the State as he is in his own section. No other man in the State seems to have the hold on the affections of so many voters as John has.

TOBACCO MEN ATTENTION

Notice has been received by Frank Williams, local Tobacco Committeeman that a new ruling now in effect makes it possible for all farmers who have Tobacco Contracts to use all the land covered by the contracts. They may plant it to any crop except corn, and grain sorghum. They may plant all land to bay or fodder corn or use all of their acres for pasture. This ruling in the opinion of Sumner Parker forecasts a shortage of hay and forage this year and he suggests that farmers in this region provide themselves with hay enough for their own needs.

PREACHES AT BRATTLEBORO

Rev. W. H. Giebel will supply for the Rev. Johnson Haines of Brattleboro July 1st while Mr. Haines is at Oberlin Ohio.

LEGION MEETING

EDITORIAL

OUR TOURIST BUREAU

The Northfield Herald Tourist Bureau will be in operation within a few days. It is hoped and expected that the folks of the town will co-operate in making this as successful as it can be. Much time and effort has been put into the plan by The Herald. The Editor was brought up in the school of journalism which believes that you can grow only in proportion to the Service you render to the Community you serve. This Community has encouraged us with many kind words and deeds and we hope to live long enough to deserve them. We have grown to love this beautiful spot and to call it Home. We have been pleased to have been able to say to those who just recently have been tempting us to return to the grind of the city dailies that we are content.

And so we look forward to the summer season joyfully, hoping we can add our little bit to the comfort of some wayfarer who is also looking for a chance to get away, if only for a few days, from the never ceasing rush of the larger towns.

TO OUR SUMMER GUESTS

It has been the habit of the readers of the Herald for the past three months to identify themselves when making purchases at the various stores which advertise with us. They have told the merchants "We saw your Advertisement in the Northfield Herald." To this co-operation may be added a great deal of the progress which the Herald has made in this time. We know that you too are interested in seeing the Herald become "The Best Weekly in New England" and you can help us greatly if you will say to the Clerk "I saw your Adv. in the Northfield Herald."

Roadside Markets

A group of farmers who market their produce from stands beside the highways have revived the old Massachusetts Roadside Stand Association and have asked the co-operation of the State Department of Agriculture in making it a success. The plan is to have some working arrangement between the association and the Division of Markets, which inspects and supervises all stands which are authorized to display the State Quality Products Label.

This label can only be given to farmers who have qualified and are under regular inspection from the Department. The plan is to confine the membership in the Roadside Stand Association to those who are privileged to display this sign. There are at present about 60 such farmers in the State, and it is hoped that under the stimulation given by the association this number will increase to at least 100.

The State department will continue to provide the quality products signs for any farmer who can qualify, whether he joins the association or not, but it is believed that the advantages of association membership will be so obvious that practically all sign holders will become members. The reason back of the use of the sign is that many stands sprung up along the roadside not owned by farmers and on these stands fruit and vegetables trucked out from city markets were sold. This led to giving the real farmers a bad name as there was no way that a city dweller could distinguish between them.

The State signs are permitted only on stands where home-grown produce is featured. The sign is a neat blue and yellow shield which can readily be seen from a distance by automobile drivers.

Wherever it is displayed buyers can be sure that the products displayed are fresh from the farm. The revived association hopes to make these approved signs much more numerous in the State than they have been in the past.

One of the ways the association hopes to do this is through some form of association effort to acquaint buyers with their plan and familiarize them with the sign. Association dues will be $5 yearly and all that is left after paying for the signs provided by the State will be used to spread the information regarding the plan.

The revived association organized with John Crosby of Arlington as president, Robert Estey of Newton as vice-president, Richard Hittinger of Belmont as secretary and Milton Allen of Waban as treasurer. Any farmers interested in the plan should communicate with these officers or with the State Department of Agriculture.

Plenty of soap and water will often take out fresh paint stains on washable clothing, and will work wonders with old stains that are first softened with oil, lard, or butter.

Hang clothes on wooden coat-hangers if the family washing must be dried in the house. This doubles the capacity of the line.

A hot iron and a clean piece of blotting paper help to take grease spots off wall paper.

The original name of the vicinity of what is now the District of Columbia and the city of Washington was Conocheague.

Greatest Event in Fraternal History

In all the fraternal history of the United States there has never been staged such an elaborate set-up for a single day's ritualistic work as that mapped out for the National Grange season at Hartford, Connecticut, in November next. An expected class of not less than 15,000 members of that organization, representing 35 or more states of the Union, will receive the supreme degree of the Order on Friday, November 16, and a complete day's schedule for that degree work has been laid out covering six classes of candidates, each expected to run above the 2500 mark.

The Seventh Degree of the Grange occupies two full hours in its presentation, and the first of the six classes will start at 9 o'clock in the morning in the Bushnell Memorial, Hartford's beautiful public auditorium; the completion of the sixth class being scheduled at exactly midnight—certainly a day long to be remembered in Grange annals, and constituting a new record in the fraternal circles of America.

Included among the initiates will be widely-known agricultural leaders from many sections of the country, governors of states, members of Congress and others prominent in public life. The fact that President Franklin D. Roosevelt was one of the class initiates for the Seventh Degree when the National Grange met at Rochester, New York, four years ago, and that many public men are identified with the lower ranks in Grange life, makes many of the latter eager to go to the topmost round of Grange ritualism, which is possible only once a year at the assembly of the national organization.

Arrangements are in process through the National Broadcasting Company for putting on the air many of the proceedings of the Hartford session of the National Grange, not included in its strictly ritualistic portions, and this will be accomplished through a coast-to-coast hook-up, which will enable people in practically every section of the United States to listen to the "high spots" at the big Hartford meeting.

Meanwhile, all the State Granges of New England and adjoining states are holding special meetings for conferring the sixth degree, and already the number of initiated candidates has reached large proportions, practically all of whom will go to Hartford in November to receive the highest degree in the organization.

At one such meeting in New Jersey almost 200 sixth degree initiates were recorded on a single evening; and at a similar meeting in the City Hall at Meriden, Connecticut, Friday evening, June 29th, it is expected that the number of initiates will exceed 1000. Never before has any New England fraternal organization event attracted such wide interest or created such extensive advance enthusiasm, as the coming of the National Grange to Hartford, Connecticut, next November.

Your Car

Periodic inspection is the key to lower automobile maintenance costs says Miles Morgan.

"After an automobile has been driven a certain distance, some parts need tightening, others need adjustments, and some should be replaced. The driver who will follow our plan of bringing his car in for inspection every time he has added several thousand more miles on his speedometer, will find that his car will always be ready when he wants it, he will not have to worry about how it will respond in an emergency, and he will avoid serious repair bills."

Few owners are now getting the maximum amount of pleasure, comfort, and protection against possible accidents which the car manufacturers have built into their automobiles. The driver who adopts a periodic inspection plan is saving money by conserving the investment he has made in his car.

Marriage

Since June is tacitly accepted as the bridal month par excellence, it is appropriate to look into the history of marriage customs now. The oldest institution of society, and the source of its most ancient laws, marriage makes a worthwhile study. There are an immense number of primitive ceremonies, some of them of striking beauty, those which have left the most distinct survivals in modern practice are sale and capture. As to its history in Christian Europe, in 1085 Hildebrand (who was Pope Gregory VII) declared marriage to be a sacrament of the Church. Also, at the Reformation John Calvin declared it to be an institution of God. But the Hollander Hugo Grotius (or De Groot) described it as a contract of partnership—a 17th century viewpoint now being emphasized as though it were a new discovery!

LIFE—LOVE—JUNE

If life could be all June,
And love could be all joy,
The world would be in tune
For you—my girl, my boy!

If men were just as strong,
And women true and fair,
Home would be filled with song,
Evening with thankful prayer.

But life has winter winds,
And love sometimes departs;
Courageous hearts and minds
You'll need, for homely cares!
A. L. Webb

INTERESTING DAYS

The courage and generalship of Lord Clive was shown June 21, 1757, when, with but 8,000 men, he met overwhelming odds of 68,000 at Plassey, and two days later was victorious, losing hardly a man.

Julian Hawthorne, American writer and novelist (son of Nathaniel Hawthorne, who wrote "The Scarlet Letter," "House of Seven Gables" and other early New England novels) was born June 22, 1846, in Boston where his father was Surveyor of Customs.

Marie Rose Josephine Tascher de la Pagerie, who became the first wife of Napoleon Bonaparte, and as Empress of France drew around her the most brilliant society of the realm, was born at Trois Ilets, Martinique, on June 23, 1762. (Some authorities say 1763.)

Henry Ward Beecher, American preacher and abolitionist, whose sermons were marked by great eloquence and originality, was born June 24, 1813, in Litchfield, Conn. William Barnes, who, as publisher of the Albany, N. Y., Journal, for more than 40 years greatly influenced the point of view of large numbers of people, died June 25, 1930.

The English dissenting clergyman Philip Doddridge, who wrote the words of the well-loved old hymn, "How Gentle God's Commands," was born in London June 26, 1702.

Thomas Abel, English priest who was executed by Henry VIII for denying the royal supremacy and supporting Katharine of Aragon, took his Master's degree at Oxford University June 27, 1516.

PARKER HOUSE ROLLS

Millie Davis, sister to the nurse of my infancy, made wonderful rolls by this recipe: Early in the morning, take 2 cups flour and rub into it 1 good tablespoon of lard. Make a hole in the center and pour in 1 pt. cold milk that has previously been boiled. Add 13 worth yeast (1 cake today) 3 tablespoons sugar, and 1 teaspoon salt. Let stand 4 hrs., mix well, and stand again 3 or 4 hrs. more. Knead out and roll round. Put a little butter on each and fold over. Put in pans and let rise till light. Bake in a hot oven.

DAYTON CAKE

This is a Canadian recipe. Beat 5 eggs well; cream together 1 cup butter and 2 cups sugar, and add two eggs to them. Sift together twice 3 1/2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons cream of tartar, and 1 teaspoon soda, and add alternately with 3/4 cup milk, a little at a time. Chop together 1 cup walnut meats and 1/2-2 cups raisins and mix in, and last of all, grate in 1 nutmeg.

GOOD VEAL LOAF

The mother of an old cannemate of mine in Wisconsin furnished this good recipe for a meat loaf that can be made and kept to eat cold on picnics, or on a hot day, when a hot meat dish would be less attractive.

Mix well together 3 lbs. lean veal, 1-2 lb. salt pork, 1 cup crumbs (bread or cracker), 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon black pepper, 1 small tablespoon salt, juice of 1 large lemon, nutmeg, and a little summer savory. Make into loaf form and bake 2 hrs. in a dripping pan, basting often with water and a little butter.

MANHATTAN FROZEN PUDDING

With 1 pt. double cream, add 1 cup pulverized sugar; 1 1/4 cups orange juice, and 1/4 cup lemon juice in bottom of mold with another cup of sugar in it; put the cream on top, and pack in ice and salt 4 hrs. to freeze. This is from Mrs. A. Van B. Mott of North Carolina.

TOMATO TOAST

California contributes this good dish for breakfast or luncheon or "high tea." Brown 2 tablespoons fat in a skillet, and add 1-2 tablespoons fine cut onion. Add 2 tablespoons flour, 1/4 cup peanut butter, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, and 3 cans tomatoes. Cook till it thickens, season, and serve on buttered squares of toast.

TEXAS DRESSING

For any green or vegetable salad, try this Texas dressing: 6 tablespoons of oil, 2 of vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 of pepper, 1/2 teaspoon parsley chopped, 1/2 teaspoon onion, cheese, mashed and added to parsley. Beat in the oil, vinegar, and dry ingredients and mix thoroughly.

CREAM PIE

Mrs. J. A. Maple of Milwaukee, Wis., made her cream pie showed in street cream, 2 eggs (not beaten separately), 1-2 teaspoon sugar, with a little nutmeg, 2 tablespoons flour (made smooth with a little of the cream before adding). Line an earthen pie plate with rich pastry, fill with the cream, and bake.

REDUCED PRICES without reduced value

THE only change in the Ford V-8 is the change in price. Lower price does not mean any difference in basic material or in engineering—Ford has only one standard.

There is only one Ford V-8 car chassis. It gives you a full 112" wheelbase. It is a powerful car—developing a generous 85 horsepower. It has the only V-8 engine in a car selling for less than $2500.

Despite its bigness, its roominess and its power, the new Ford V-8 is the most economical car Ford has ever built. You save money on gas and oil every mile you drive.

Examine the new Ford V-8. Look at costly cars. The more high-priced cars you inspect, the more Ford V-8 features you will see.

AMERICA'S GREAT TRUCK VALUE!

The Ford V-8 is everything a truck should be. Full-size. Rugged. Economical. Moreover, Ford Trucks and Commercial Cars are built to handle 99% of all hauling problems—with a body type for every need.

NOW AT NEW LOW PRICES

AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS OF NEW ENGLAND

COOL—In the Ford V-8 you get windshield ventilation from the front as well as ventilation from the side. You're cool even on a broiling day.

EASY PARKING—The Ford V-8 is one of the easiest cars in the world to drive. A 15 to 1 ratio makes parking child's play.

BRATTLEBORO'S PARADE

Brattleboro held its 28th Annual Parade Wednesday night.This is a unique affair and a valuable addition to the civic life of our neighboring town.Any town which can so hold its people to it as the folks of Brattleboro cling to their old home town is a safe town in which to live. We predict that Brattleboro
High School will never foster any Communist Students Leagues or any otherisms that spring from foreign soil.In honoring their school the alumni honored themselves. We are proud of being neighbors to them.
